'EXPRESSION OF INTEREST'
SOUTH WEST REGION TEAM for SENIOR WINTON CUP: 4/5 JULY: NOTTINGHAM

We are seeking 'expressions of interest from fencers who live or fence with a club in the South West.
Selection will be made from those who 'express an interest' according to rankings. There is a Veteran Winton event later in the year.

If you wish to be considered for the team please read all information and reply by email before the 20 MAY.

For those who are new to this competition: it is a 2 day, inter-regional 6 weapon competition. The CUP is fiercely competed for by regional teams with a range of ages and fencing skills. See attachments and https://www.facebook.com/WintonCup. The South West has a history of winning the event but hasn't entered a team for the last few years. SO LET'S GET BACK IN THERE!

The event will run over 2 days: 4 and 5 July 2015.
4 July 10 am start for all weapons, 9 am in Sunday.
Usually 9 – 11 teams competing against each other in each weapon.
3 fencers plus reserve per team.
Fencers will be expected to referee unless we can find and fund dedicated referees.
Fencers will be expected to set up (by 9.30am on Saturday) and dismantle a piste and boxes.

VENUE:
Lee Westwood Sports Centre, Clifton Campus, Nottingham Trent University, Clifton Lane, NG11 8N

ENTRY FEE:
South West Fencing (EFSW) will pay the team entry fee.

COST:
Accommodation, Transport, Food: fencers to finance themselves.
Jane B is prepared to co-ordinate accommodation. Each fencer will be responsible for paying for their own accommodation. There are a few B&B's, Premier Inn, Jury's Inn within in a 5 mile radius. If booked early - budget for £60 - £100.00 for the weekend in shared accommodation..

There is no organised Event Dinner, but we can arrange a team get together.

TEAM CAPTAIN:
A team captain will be chosen once we know who is going.
